Dear Ms. Best:

This is our response to your request in which you asked for "a copy of the list or printout or database listing of Inspector General investigations closed/reports completed during calendar year 2017."

The Smithsonian Institution and its OIG are not subject to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, or the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a. Dong v. Smithsonian Institution, 125 F.3d 877 (D.C. Cir. 1997), cert. denied, 524 U.S. 922 (1998); Requests for Smithsonian Institution Information, Smithsonian Directive 807 (SD 807) (Feb. 4, 2009). Nevertheless, we provide information to the public in keeping with the Institution's mandate to increase and diffuse knowledge. See 20 U.S.C. §41 et seq. The OIG answers requests for documents consistent with SD 807, and it adheres to the principles of FOIA, the Privacy Act, and relevant caselaw. In addition, the OIG must comply with the requirements of the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, 5 U.S.C. App. 3, which places restrictions on what information can be released. Finally, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the laws, policies, and principles listed above. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist

Accordingly, we have attached a 2-page document that is responsive to your request.

You have a right to appeal a partial or full denial of your request. An appeal must be in writing, addressed to the Smithsonian Institution Office of the Inspector General, and made within 60 days from the date of this response letter. The request must explain your reason(s) for the appeal. The Smithsonian Inspector General will decide your appeal in writing specifying the reason(s) for the granting or denying of the appeal.

Sincerely,

Elin H. Christensen
Counsel to the Inspector General
